

Regional Workshops on Water and Watershed Planning in the face of climate change and other challenges

Wednesday, January 18th 2012
Inn at the Quay, Hyack Room
900 Quayside Drive in New Westminster, BC

AGENDA

9:30	Arrival and Refreshments
10:00	Welcome and Introductions	Marion Town Fraser Basin Council
10:10	Rethinking Our Water Ways – A Guide to Water and Watershed Planning • Presentation • Questions and discussion	Steve Litke Fraser Basin Council
10:55	Local and Regional Issues, Initiatives, and Lessons Learned
	The Tap Water Campaign of Metro Vancouver	David Hocking, Metro Vancouver
	Metro Vancouver's Integrated Liquid Waste and Resource Management Plan – Perspectives from an Advisory Committee	Christianne Wilhelmson, Georgia Strait Alliance
	Water and Climate Adaptation in Vancouver	Tamsin Mills, City of Vancouver
	Peeling Back the Pavement: A Blueprint for Reinventing Rainwater Management in Canada's Communities	Jesse Baltutis, The POLIS Project for Ecological Governance
	Questions and Discussion
12:15	Lunch and Networking
1:00	Roundtable Discussions
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What are the key water and watershed issues in our community or region? • What key challenges or barriers are related to these issues? • What are the existing or emerging opportunities to look after water and watersheds in our community or region? (partnerships, planning processes, planning initiatives, technical studies, research, etc.)
2:00	Exploring a Vision for the Future	Facilitated by Marion Town
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What collaborations need to happen to benefit water and watersheds? • Do any of these subjects have a priority for the future? If so, which ones? Or together? • What actions, strategies, or creative solutions will help get us there? Who else needs to be involved?
2:45	Wrap-Up
3:00	Adjourn	