Opportunity Type: Request for Proposals

Organization: Tsawout First Nation

Tsawout First Nation

Request for Proposals

PROPOSAL WRITING SERVICES

The Tsawout First Nation, located on the Saanich Peninsula approximately 20 minutes from Victoria, requires the services of a professional proposal writing firm/individual to assist Tsawout with securing funds and/or grants from various governmental and non-governmental programs. Speaking in general terms, the Tsawout First Nation currently provides the following services to our Band members:

- General Band Administration
- Health Services
- Housing
- Social Services
- Fisheries
- Treaty Research
- Elder and Youth Services
- Lands
- Public Works

The proposal must contain, at a minimum, the following information:

Your past experience in securing funding – this would include but not be limited to the name of the organization/agency/First Nation Government that received the funds, the general category and the funding amount received.

Payment approach – this would include how you would like to be paid. For example, is it to be based upon a percentage of the amount raised, a flat fee per proposal or on an hourly basis.

Total hours that your services would be available to the Tsawout First Nation.

Total budget costs – this would include fees and expenses.

References – three are required. This would include names and phone numbers.

Location of the services to be provided. Will they be provided through your office or are you expecting to use a portion of the Tsawout First Nation Band office?

A copy of your proposal writing style. This must be added as an appendix to your actual proposal.

A copy of your Worksafe account number.

The total proposal should not exceed a total of five pages. If you are going to submit, it must be received by Tsawout no later than 4:00 pm on May 14, 2010. No electronic copies will be accepted. Tsawout reserves the right to reject any proposal submitted. Please feel free to either send your proposal to or contact the undersigned for additional information:
