An Agreement in Principle to Partner in Community Planning

We the undersigned agree, in principle, to a collaborative partnership in Community Planning generally in accordance with the purpose and objectives described below.

Purpose

The proposal is for the City of Campbell River and adjacent First Nations communities to collaboratively work together to review the City's Official Community Plan and First Nation's community development plans.

Objectives

1. To collectively prepare a common vision to guide the growth of our communities.
2. To better understand each others cultures, goals, objectives and values.
3. To revise our community plans in a way that is consistent with our mutual goals, objectives and values.
4. To define together joint goals and community objectives and common values including how we understand sustainability.
5. To look for future partnerships and initiatives that have mutual benefits for our communities.
6. To work towards complementary and supportive land uses and servicing capacity.

Benefits

Benefits could include:

- 1) Stronger relationships and communication.
- 2) Better understanding of each community's goals and values.
- 3) Ability to work together on mutual goals and partnerships.
- 4) A stronger voice when dealing with the provincial and federal governments on issues of joint interest.
- 5) Coordinated and mutually supportive land use planning.
