Support to the NLSC will include but is not limited to: coordinating, facilitating and summarizing meetings including the drafting of agendas; communicating with other members of the public who attended the September 19, 2012 and June 8, 2013 meetings; maintenance of the website; receiving and managing funds; issuing contracts; hiring staff.

Reporting and Transparency

The NLSC will report to the larger public through annual public meetings. Meeting summaries of the NLSC will be posted on the website www.nicolaplan.ca for transparency.

Meeting Frequency

The NLSC will meet at least three times per year or as needed. Participation can be by teleconference, Skype or by means other than in-person.

Committees

The NLSC may create committees to address specific issues. Committees must have specific objectives or tasks, membership criteria, and a limited time period outlined for their work. Committees may have expertise from outside the NLSC, as needed. Committees have no delegated decision making authority, and will report back to the NLSC.

Decision Making Process

Quorum for meetings to proceed is six steering committee members. The NLSC will seek consensus on all decisions. Where consensus cannot be reached, a decision will be made by simple majority.

The TOR will be updated as needed and agreed to by consensus of the members.

Completion

The NLSC will cease to exist if and when agreed to by consensus of the members. The NLSC can make recommendations for a more permanent body (society or similar), including the modification of the Nicola Lake Stewardship Society. Modification includes but is not limited to the constitution, bylaws, structure of directors and membership.
